NEW JERSEY Highly Educated, Perfectly Located

New Jersey means business. Economic growth is a top priority here, and the State is implementing policies to make New Jersey even more attractive as a business location. Recent policy changes include adopting a single sales factor formula for the corporate business tax, ending the corporate business tax surcharge, doubling the R&D tax credit and creating a Talent Network that links business and education institutions with job seekers. The State also provides free professional business assistance and attractive incentives and tax credits. Ready to grow in the Garden State?

WHY NEW JERSEY?

NEW JERSEY IS HIGHLY EDUCATED: The strength of New Jersey's economy is rooted in our highly educated and work-ready employee base—the product of strong investment in our schools and a top-notch network of colleges and universities. That's why CNBC ranks New Jersey #1 for Education in the country in their 2013 "Top States for Business." New Jerseyans have access to 63 public and private colleges and universities in state, including Fairleigh Dickinson, Princeton, Rider, Rutgers and Seton Hall universities.

NEW JERSEY IS PERFECTLY LOCATED: Within a day's drive of 130 million consumers, New Jersey is one of the nation's top ten locations for ports and logistics (Area Development magazine). Our unmatched transportation assets include 38,000 miles of road, 1,000 miles of rail freight lines, five Foreign Trade Zones, two international airports and two ports, including the third busiest in North America.
